Swanny City Park will come alive on Memorial Day Weekend with a broad selection of original art from over 70 area artists. The variety of artisans includes categories such as textiles, fine art, creative, glass, jewelry, pottery, metal and wood.

Kids Corner activities are being hosted for a second year in a row by the Dynamic Beacon Afterschool Program, with a smorgasbord of old and new activities sure to entertain and amuse. From sidewalk chalk art, the popular paint-by-number, a delicious cake walk every hour on the hour, face painting, and plenty of crafty projects to get the creativity flowing.

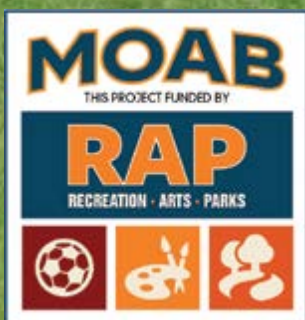

We are pleased to have Grassroots Shakespeare back again to perform on Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Rick Boretti, the magic man, back with all his charm and trickery. Fortune-telling, Kids Got Talent stage with open mic, and scheduled performances by our youth!

Best of all, it's all free! Plus, check out and support Kid Row for crafts sold by young vendors. Join us for a weekend of fun and entertainment!

Pick up a copy of the Moab Arts Festival newspaper for a description of activities and times.

Live music throughout the two days. Local favorites you may recognize are Juniper Drive, Dave Steward Quintet, Quicksand Soup, Toni and the Black Hats, Pete Sand & The Drifters, Ryan & Jeff, Alan & Valerie Brown, Moab Taiko Dan, Green Light, The Butch Cassidies and The Nanites. A complete music schedule is available on the website, www.moabartsfestival.org

The Beer and Wine Garden will be open both days of the Festival featuring Spanish Valley Vineyards, Moab Brewery, Proper Brewing Co., and 98 Center serving cocktails and craft mocktails. The festival would be not complete without a variety of festival food vendors. Come to the Moab Arts Festival and meet the artists, stay for great live entertainment, local wine and beer, delicious food, and purchase something special and unique.
